Can-Collect Solutions Inc. offers advanced debt recovery solutions that can help your business to collect on the debts owed to you. All businesses face some debts that go unpaid when they grant credit. Even in the largest businesses this slows down cash flow and can cripple the business's ability to grow. A variety of professional services are available to aid a business in getting debts collected. The process involves a careful examination of who owes you money and what stage in the collection process they are in. What ever credit problems you experience CCS has the solution.

Our customers are always our highest priority. We value each and every one of our client relationships, and we commit to operating with integrity, honesty and accuracy.

LETTER PROGRAMS

In today's business environment every decision must contribute to the financial performance of the company. Can-Collect's Letter program does just that.

In the past there has been no cost effective method for collecting smaller balance accounts, collectively these small accounts can have a substantial impact on the bottom line profit.

We can custom design your letters in English or French and the text becomes progressively firmer to stimulate debtor payment.
